Dear Customer:

Effective Monday August 7, 2006 the Canadian distribution of Hidden Beach Recordings products will change from Sony BMG Music Canada to Fontana North/Universal Music Canada.

In order to make the transition as easy as possible for all customers, the following steps have been agreed upon by Sony BMG Music Canada and Fontana North.

ORDERS:

Effective Friday August 4, 2006 Sony BMG Music Canada will cancel all Hidden Beach Recordings' back orders. Effective Monday August 7, 2006 Fontana North will solicit all orders, and ship all Hidden Beach Recordings' catalogue products. Please note that orders transmitted via EDI will be accepted by Fontana North effective Saturday August 5, 2006. There are no changes to product numbers or UPC's. Fontana North pricing is indicated on the attached listing.

RETURNS:

Sony BMG Music Canada will accept return requests for Hidden Beach Recordings' products until Friday August 4, 2006. Fontana North will accept return requests for Hidden Beach Recordings' catalogue products beginning Monday August 7, 2006 and will issue credit subject to the Universal Music Canada "General Terms and Conditions of Sale".

ADVERTISING:

Sony BMG Music Canada will be responsible for Hidden Beach Recordings' advertising claims issued up to Friday August 4, 2006.

We trust that these procedures will make the transition as smooth as possible and we thank you for your continued support.

Please contact your local Fontana North representative, should you have any questions.

Sass Jordan | Get What You Give

TRACK LISTING:

1. What You Gonna Do
2. Shuffle
3. Have You Ever Seen The Rain
4. How Do I Get It Right
5. I Want More
6. Terminally Yours
7. Torn In Two
8. Love's Like Rain
9. The Feeling's Gone
10. Trouble
11. Natural Disaster
12. Even

Sass Jordan's brand new album Get What You Give, is a celebration of her first love and inspiration - seminal American music. Sass, whose husky-toned voice People Magazine once described as "pained but indomitable," swaps the poppy vibe of her last studio album for a more rootsy, intimate sound that reflects her early propensity for artists like The Band, Little Feat, Bonnie Raitt, and The Allman Brothers.

The record was partially recorded in Nashville with much-in-demand blues-roots expert Colin Linden (Bruce Cockburn, Colin James, The Band) helping the project.

Sass's vocal performance shines with an impromptu feel, yet remains thick with gritty conviction. She is perfectly complemented by the understated contributions of session stalwarts like bassists Bob Babbitt (The Funk Brothers), and Garry Tallent (Bruce Springsteen's E Street Band), drummer Ken Koomer (Wilco), guitarist Audley Freed (Black Crowes, Jimmy Page) and keyboardist Richard

Bell (Janis Joplin's Full Tilt Boogie Band, The Band).

Get What You Give is a masterful piece of music filled with passion and soul combined with the creative talents of gifted players. Sass' vocals intertwine brilliantly with the cool sounds of soulful blues. This is a record that will stand the test of time and put Sass Jordan right back where she belongs – at the top of the charts.

KEY SELLING POINTS:

- Sass Jordan has a strong fan base as a recording artist from her past releases (Present, Racine, Rats, The Best Of Sass Jordan, and Tell Somebody).
- Instantly recognisable as a household name, Sass Jordan's audience is widespread. Her work in television has exposed her to a broad audience, reaching many demographics. Teens and young women find Sass a compelling, successful role model; music lovers are familiar with her career as a singer and an artist.
- Press coverage for this release will be strong. Her high profile and versatility in subject will make for a compelling interview and will appeal to a variety of publications.
- Debut single, What You Gonna Do was recently serviced to Rock and Classic Rock station receiving an out of the box ad at Bob FM in Ottawa. Feedback has been positive and we are expecting additional adds to follow.
- CTV's on-air support will deliver maximum national exposure ensuring familiarity of product in the market.

Lenny Breau | Master Class

Press Quotes:

"If Chopin had played the guitar he would have sounded like Lenny Breau" Chet Atkins

"A tormented artistic genius, (Lenny Breau) influenced a generation of musicians and remains a major force in the jazz world today." David Hayes, Saturday Night Magazine

"If you haven't heard Breau, then you don't know how far the instrument can be taken." Leonard Feather, U.S. musicologist and critic.

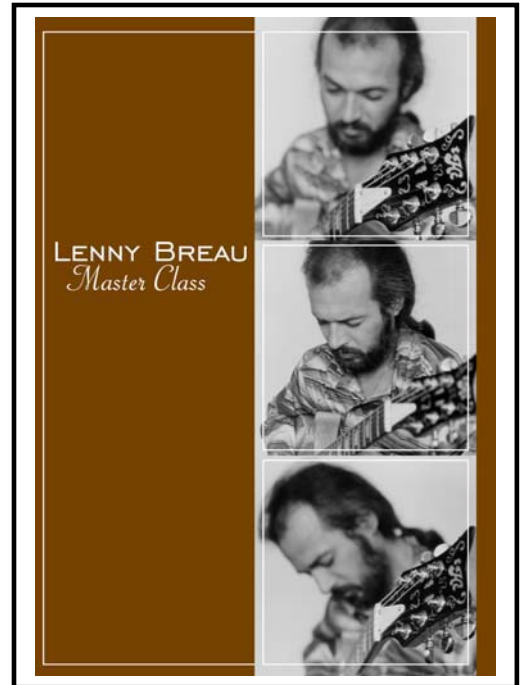

TRACK LISTING:

1. Stella By Starlight
2. The Nearness of You
3. Vision
4. You Needed Me
5. Freight Train
6. Funny Man
7. Medley #1: I'll Remember April, On Green Dolphin Street
8. Medley #2: Send In The Clowns, It Could Happen To You

Lenny Breau is revered as a genius in the jazz guitar world. His untimely death in 1984 and his troubled personal life contributed to the fact that his unworldly talent was woefully under recorded. Randy Bachman, who crossed paths with Lenny Breau when both were teenagers in Winnipeg, founded Guitararchives Records which has been dedicated to recovering Lenny Breau performances and releasing them for fans.

This rare video taped footage of Lenny Breau was captured in July 1982, while he was teaching a master class at the University of Southern California. It is not a high-tech production, but a precious moment in time, captured on amateur video. The unassuming Breau plays each song, takes questions from the class and explains his technique and methods. Jazz guitar enthusiasts and Lenny Breau fans will appreciate the opportunity to have this visual glimpse into the genius of Lenny Breau, and all music lovers will marvel at his incredible, effortless and unique style of playing.

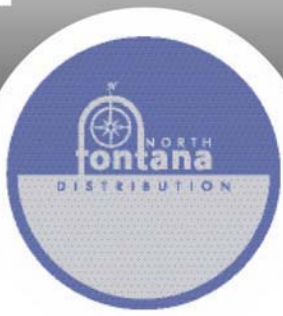

KEY SELLING POINTS:

- Rare and anticipated release, appeals to jazz guitar fans
- Recent release of Lenny Breau biography and accompanying national media attention has piqued interest for Lenny Breau in a broad demographic
- Randy Bachman will support this release with interviews for national radio and print outlets
- Lenny Breau rated one of the top 10 most underrated guitarists of all time in highly circulated JazzTimes magazine.

Lenny Breau is revered as a genius in the jazz guitar world. His untimely death in 1984 and his troubled personal life contributed to the fact that his unworldly talent was woefully under recorded. Randy Bachman, who crossed paths with Lenny Breau when both were teenagers in Winnipeg, founded Guitarchives Records which has been dedicated to recovering Lenny Breau performances and releasing them for fans.

This long-awaited sixth release by Guitarchives, gathers together some of Lenny's greatest moments.

"From a collaboration with Phil Upchurch, which we believe is the last known recording of Lenny, to an almost lost Nashville track with Chet Atkins.....from a solitary moment in a log cabin, to an acid-style raga excursion and a peek at a special Nashville performance, we present you this mosaic of important pieces to the musical jigsaw puzzle we know and love as Lenny Breau," notes Randy about the man who influenced his own musicianship for life.

Pablito's Way

Perhaps best known for his many collaborations with the unstoppable Kool Keith, Motion Man has also appeared alongside the likes of Linkin Park, Biz Markie, Too Short, and a host of other heavy-hitters. His skills have landed him on stage in clubs, concert halls, festivals, and fortresses from Australia to Sweden and everywhere in between. Though he's a dedicated representative of the San Francisco Bay Area, his unique style cannot be categorized geographically. He's like no other MC in the game today. The music is fresh, yet classic. Complicated, yet accessible. And above all else, it's hip-hop, baby.

KEY SELLING POINTS:

- This dual layer CD/DVD includes 4 music videos from Motion Man
- Motion Man was featured on Linkin Park's multi platinum selling album Reanimation
- Full servicing to college radio & media outlets
- Video to be serviced early September to all media outlets

He comes in many forms and many incarnations, but his style is distinctly his own. Just as there's no mistaking his smooth lyrical delivery and searing hip-hop prose with its underlying edgy beats, there's no denying the incredible force of power that is Kool Keith. Whether as a founding member of the legendary Ultramagnetic MCs, or in the guises of his renegade rap personas that include Dr. Octagon and Dr. Doom, Keith has established himself as an innovative lyricist whose erudite raps stretch the envelope to the limit while exciting and entertaining the listener. This limited edition reissue of Keith's solo debut classic (under this moniker) is long overdue. With enhanced video footage, bonus tracks and a numbered digipak, the disc is a must have for any fan of off the wall hip-hop.

KEY SELLING POINTS:

- This limited edition version of the Sex Styles reissue will be numbered (on the back in a white box) and manufactured in a digi pack. Limited to 5000 copies in the U.S.

Birdapres | Get It Done

Press Quotes:

"Every time Birdapres works with a strong producer it becomes more mysterious why he remains Vancouver's most underrated rapper"

- Thomas Quinlan, Exclaim

"One of the most prolific and consistently insightful lyricists."

-Martine Turenne, Georgia Straight

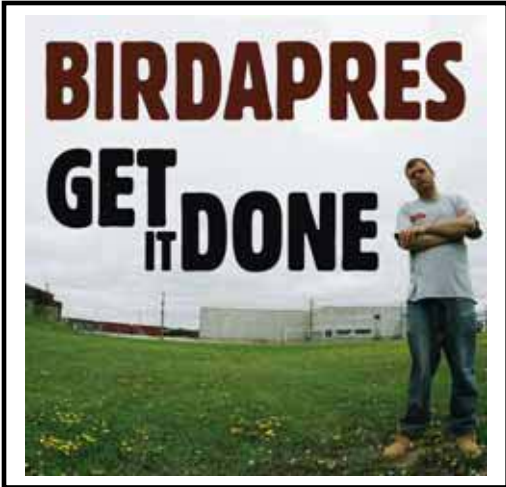

TRACK LISTING:

1. Get It Done
2. High School Shit (feat. Moka Only)
3. Do That Dance
4. Harsh Words
5. We Need New Shoes
6. Blind
7. Pace Yourself (feat. Evil)
8. The Winter
9. Bar Star
10. City Of Glass
11. Your Beef
12. Scratch Chorus (feat. Jaykin and Werdoner)

Hailing from East Vancouver, BC, Birdapres (pronounced BIRD-UH-PREY) has long been one of Vancouver's best kept secrets. A brilliant lyricist and rhymers, he is a rapper's rapper, equally adept at freestyle and the written verse.

Growing up between Vancouver and Victoria, Birdapres (real name Dane Goulet) evolved from a trouble-making youth to a full time hip-hop fan and participant. From collecting rap 12"s and cassettes in the late 80's to pressing his first 12" (with RKV) in 1995, Bird has had an unwavering commitment to the art form that is hip-hop and music in general. He has studied its history and is a walking encyclopedia of recorded music. He can find a funky break in virtually any pile of dollar records. His record collection has something from every era and every genre, and he has made his living as a record dealer at various times in the ebay era.

Birdapres has worked with many notable artists over the years: Moka Only, DJ Moves, Len, Styles of Beyond. But he has also appeared on countless underground releases in and around Vancouver over the years, because the scene respects him and he is always down to work with someone new. This attitude eventually paired him with mcenroe of Peanuts & Corn Records, and led to the formation of mcenroe & Birdapres and the release of Nothing Is Cool. This recording was one of the most popular and best selling releases for Peanuts & Corn, garnering rave reviews and selling very well in Canada.

In 2006, Birdapres is dropping his long awaited solo record. "Get It Done" is a 12 song opus that shows all sides of Bird's personality - the fun loving "Do That Dance", the clubby yet observant "Bar Star", the fierce, relentless "Get It Done", and the introspective "The Winter". It is tied together with the production of mcenroe, and a simple attitude: Get It Done. No gimmicks, no pop hooks, no biting. When Birdapres digs for records, he finds the best ones, regardless of genre or era. Get It Done is music for music lovers.

What part of "No Means No" don't you understand?

It's shit on a stick, it's cum on toast, it's hey lawdy Mama, I love you the most. It's not pretty but it's true, but what is these days anyways, eh? Six years in the making, well, let's be honest, five and a half years in the sitting around doing nothing and six months in the holy crap we'd better get busy, NoMeansNo releases it's long awaited tenth full length compact disc entitled "All Roads Lead To Ausfahrt", which is, for those not familiar with the German tongue, an enticing thought but I digress, the Way Out. Which is, ironically, how we would have been described back in 1965. Coincidence? You be the judge. They were going to target the ten year old crowd and simply call the new disc "Ass Fart" but instead chose the high road, so to speak (ha ha), which, of course, leads directly from Obscurity to Oblivion. But no rain on this parade, my friends, enjoy and partake and No, please...thank you. Really it was nothing.

Mouse On Mars | Varcharz

Press Quotes:

"Breakthrough albums rarely happen on a band's eighth try, but Radical Connector turns this German duo's antiseptic studio into a Solid Gold dance party, slicing and dicing funk and syncopated soul. Like sticking 1980 in a Cuisinart."

- SPIN, Adrienne Day

6. Hi Fienilin
7. Bertney
8. Retphase
9. One Day, Not Today

Mouse on Mars is one of the few electronic bands to stand the test of time. Constantly reinventing themselves, they have taken electronica to new heights with a unique blend of sound annihilation, fragmented melodies and an impassioned hatred of conformity. For over a decade, Mouse on Mars has sweated over burning consoles to create a new musical language, only to twist it again into thousands of myriad distortions. After recording five albums for Thrill Jockey Records, they now team up with Ipecac Recordings for the release of Varcharz. Entirely recorded at Mouse on Mars' St. Martin Ton Studios in Duesseldorf, Varcharz is their most live sounding and diverse studio album to date. The title, Varcharz, is intentionally mistaken to sound like "war charts", but in fact, it is the phonetic mangling in English of the German word "wortschatz" which means "vocabulary". For this album, Mouse on Mars digested a steady diet of spatial freejazz and cocaine-fried booty funk to deliver an album reflecting their energetic live sets' sparkling chaos and glorious precision. Varcharz is nine tracks (don't get confused by its stuttering track ID's) of energetic impulses, heavy riffing from grained sounds and canned percussion, and slamming bottom end insanity provided by notorious sequenced bass and kick drum jolts. Varcharz is also spiked with catchy pop references, anarchic rock interpretations and manga-style pathos.

5. Us + Our Friends
6. The Breeze
7. Road To Ruin
8. Soldier On
9. The Well
10. The Woods
11. Don't Prey On Me

A near-telepathic nonchalance pervades the music of the Tall Firs. The interwoven melodies of the two guitars converse in a language that has evolved an unsettling familiarity like birdies on a remote island. The drums comment on the discussion, push or pull it, effortlessly gliding from free time to strict metronome and back over the course of a single measure. Melancholic incantations reminiscent of Joni Mitchell or Jackson C. Frank transition into open-tuning workouts of despair and beauty like Mississippi John Hurt throwing down with Wire.

In New York, the band has packed Lower East Side hotspot Tonic, been curated by Jim O'Rourke to perform at The Stone, and done gigs at dive bars, amphitheatres, and illegal loft spaces while maintaining a semiresidence at Williamsburg's scene-defining Union Pool. Tall Firs have shared bills with Sonic Youth, Oneida, Awesome Color, Samara Lubelski, P.G. Six, Tim Foljahn, and Corsano/Flaherty amongst other Brooklyn and New England weirdos.

As a trio, the Tall Firs have the disarming presence of a dog-whisperer, and the unnerving triangularcold-read of a shadow boxing crüe of mesmerists. This is the band guitarist/journalist Alan Licht says is "Beard-less contemporary rock at it's best."

Two Hours Traffic | Isolator EP

Press Quotes:

"Two Hours Traffic don't just prove that science kids can make great art, but that they're going to be the ones to bring back that long-missed Maritime pop sound." - See Magazine (Edmonton)

"If anyone deserves attention from Canada's youth, it's these guys." - Soul Shine Magazine (Toronto)

"The youthful Prince Edward Island quartet drops more hooks than a pirate party, using guitars as "percussion you might hum, not unlike the La's." - The Coast Top Albums of 2005 (Halifax)

TRACK LISTING:

1. Purple Eyes / Yellow Light
2. Stuck for the Summer
3. Heatseeker
4. Jezebel
5. New Love
6. Close up to you

They barely graduated. Armed with the Joel Plaskett-produced Isolator EP, Two Hours Traffic gladly leaves behind the ivory towers of higher education for less dignified pursuits. A slew of Maritime release dates are lined up for September supported by fellow indie-popsters The Meligrove Band. Immediately following these shows, the band jets to Toronto for a residency with plans to hit the road hard by touring across Canada. Once there, they'll also shoot their second VideoFact-funded video, this time with Yaev Staal (dir. Hayden, Joel Plaskett Emergency) for the plucky leadoff single "Stuck for the Summer."

The Isolator release will coincide with a dynamic new webpage design by Jud Haynes, who has created sites for Wintersleep, Matt Mays and El Torpedo, and the Joel Plaskett Emergency – bands with which Two Hours Traffic has toured extensively. The band has hired Killbeat Music to track the CD at college and CBC radio and to target new media (blogs/podcasts/ internet radio/webzines) and print media. In addition, the quartet will continue working with Beverly Hills-based Aperture Music, a music licensing company that has placed the band's songs on Fox's "The OC," ABC's "The Ghost Whisperer," and a variety of other TV shows and films.

2. Our Strange Man
3. The Garden of Rotten Teeth
4. Voices Over Conus
5. Nine Heads
6. Eruption (s.i.)
7. Narsaq

Teeth of the Hydra formed in the year 2000 when Matt Miner found Matt Bailey handcuffed to a stall in a bathroom at the Southland dirt mall in Columbus, Ohio. Bailey was kidnapped by carnies, handcuffed to a bathroom stall in a diabetic stupor and given a Melvins record to think about while he wallowed in his own excrement. Miner walked in to pee and said "That's the best record ever dude, why are you chained to the stall?" Bailey replied, "Get me the fuck out of here." At this point Miner realized his fate, Bailey was the missing link in his next noise mission: Merican Hogleg. "No one liked the name but me so we changed it to Teeth of the Hydra" (since declared by Wire Magazine as one of the world's "dodgiest" band names). Bailey was a younger local musician from the Westerville crew, a bunch of stylish forward thinking noiseniks who played in cool bands like The Lack, Betaroric and Blow-Up. Miner was a veteran of the Hessian/hippie/thrash mutants Three Studies for a Crucifixion, the only "scary" band in Columbus during the mid 90's. Rounding out the band was drummer Josh Reed, who loves to play pool.

Saigon Hookers | Hello Rock and Roll

Press Quotes:

"The Saigon Hookers are nothing if not real rock 'n' roll. Their songs cover all the basics: drinking, drugs, and sex". - ECHO Weekly

TRACK LISTING:

1. she blows my mind
2. I'm right here
3. you're the deer*
4. slim pickings
5. fresh fish
6. so good
7. sweetheart
8. devil to win
9. we don't care
10. nothing left

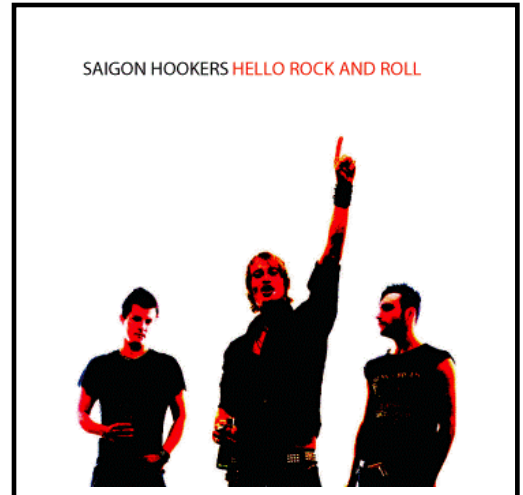

* first single

Saigon Hookers lead singer Tommy Smokes is already a veteran, having spent his formative years in Norway, touring Europe with Sordid Conditions. After coming to Canada, he holed up with his Les Paul and a bottle of whiskey for a couple of years and emerged a ferocious, riff-spitting Zeus. He hired veteran percussionist Feeney to play the traps, shortly after his exit from Maple Music recording artists, The Miniatures. Smokes found his perfect melodic foil in Carmine A. Romano, whose filthy, lightening quick bass runs lay the bedrock for Smokes' screaming leads.

With a line-up in place, The Saigon Hookers started playing immediately and gained high-profile slots alongside such artists as The Supersuckers, The Illuminati, C'Mon, Nashville Pussy, The Black Halos, Crash Kelly, and Robin Black.

Their sneering distillation of the Backyard Babies' best moments and Super Shitty To The Max-era Hellcopters made them fast favourites amongst lovers of amps-to-eleven arena punk. The guitars scream and chug; Smokes' voice is shredded, livid, and lustful; the bass could collapse your rib cage; the drums will move your ass. Not to mention the songs which, despite their tattered robes, display a gorgeous gift for melody and a pristine instrumental precision.

This is what great rock 'n' roll is about. Furious, loud, dirty, sexy, and un-fucking-apologetic.

KEY SELLING POINTS:

- 102.1 THE EDGE (Toronto) has added the first single "You're The Deer"
- Full National Publicity push
- SAIGON HOOKERS are sponsored by JAGERMEISTER who will support a fall tour in October with label mates ROMEO LIQUOR STORE (addict 1004).

Crush Luther | Crush Luther

Press Quotes:

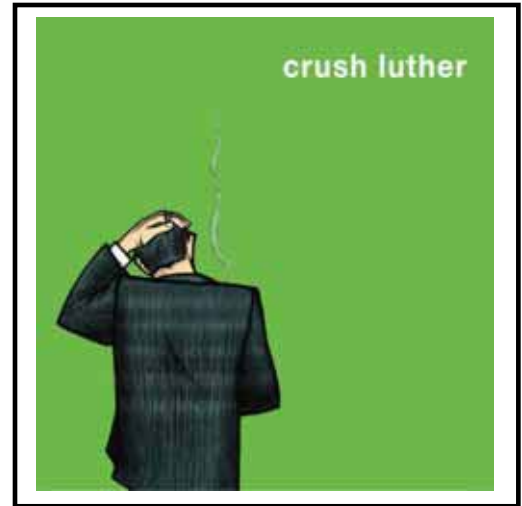

"I still take in a Crush Luther show whenever time permits, and always think: Luther sounds a bit like Rod Stewart, when Rod Stewart was cool, before the whole "American Songbook" thing."

TRACK LISTING:

1. When We Were Golden
2. Slowdance Anywhere I Go
3. City Girl
4. Don't Fight About It
5. Trouble
6. The Cools
7. All Too Soon
8. Big Sky
9. Dear Ensenada
10. Spider Song
11. Jody Looks Out for Himself
12. Emergency

Crush Luther was a welcome change from the line up of primarily mediocre hard-core acts when I first saw them perform more than a year ago. As the band sang and danced their way through their set, a remarkable thing happened. Emo kids pushed black scenester hair out of their eyes; hands were removed from pockets; and the joys of moving your body along with the beat were rediscovered. Catchy pop songs and irrepressibly charming stage behaviour reigned supreme. The outfit is driven by the inventive and understated drumming of Brent Mills (noted here first because drummers never get enough respect) and the propulsive bass lines of Bodan Mullholland. Rhythm guitarist Giggi Bongard contributes both a strong jaw line and a rhythmic sense that reminds lead guitarist Matt Fury how fortunate he is to only be required to play terrifyingly athletic, one-foot-on-the-monitor worthy guitar solos. The ensemble is rounded out by front man Luther Mallory, whose marketable skills include commentary on continuity errors in Lord of the Rings, memorization of entire Full House episodes, and a dangerously large voice that rolls out of his deceptively Sid-Vicious-like build. Crush Luther's engrossing live show has awarded them a chance to in Canada on the 2005 Warped Tour, Wakestock, a NXNE showcase, as well as opening slots for bands like Fishbone and The Salads. Recently, the band has signed with High 4 Records, owned and operated by Darren Pfeiffer of Goldfinger.

Dan Bern Breathe

Press Quotes:

"Dan strums drop-dead gorgeous melodies like a demon with his tail on fire."
—WASHINGTON POST

"Bern veers from comedy to anger, conjectures to shaggy-dog stories; he takes sidelong approaches to theology, science fiction, consumer culture, art, love, and baseball. Onstage, he is a wily savant, quizzical and wide-eyed but not naive."
— NEW YORK TIMES

Bern's sixth long-playing album, Breathe—which again reunites him with big-league producer Chuck Plotkin (Springsteen, Dylan)—is something entirely new for the artist. It takes the personal and finds in it a seedling of renewal. This is music with a big, beating heart. Let's face it: the man has more stray thoughts, tries on more hats, slips into more pairs of shoes, eavesdrops on more conversations, reads more minds, and hears more voices than the rest of us. And what a lucky break for us that he's had a pen laying around to document, describe, and share so many of them.

Koala Motel, Anne McCue's second album for Messenger Records, following 2004's enthusiastically received Roll, represents an extraordinary leap made by an already impressive talent. The new album is at once timely and timeless, accessible and deep. It goes beyond affecting songs and inspired playing and singing, and creates a world of its own.

Once again co-produced by Dusty Wakeman and McCue at Mad Dog Studios in Burbank, Koala Motel is further enhanced by strategic vocal contributions from Lucinda Williams, John Doe, Jim Lauderdale and Heart's Nancy Wilson (who also plays mandolin on one track).
